CIA interviews moved to basement of police station

By HOLLACE GOLDBERG

A Central Intelligence Agency recruiter conducted job interviews uninterrupted yesterday after the placement service quietly switched the interview room to the basement of the campus police station.

The CIA meetings were originally scheduled for room eight in Shoemaker building. According to R. Bruce Ritter, director of last week. He added that Monday, when SDS'ers here forced postponement of five student interviews, was the "first disruptive demonstration I have ever been involved in."

Dammen praised the caliber of University students he has met. CIA recruitment will continue today from 9 a.m. to 5:15 at the police station. According to Ritter the room is frequently used for placement interviews.
